Dear Dizzy Feet Foundation Board,

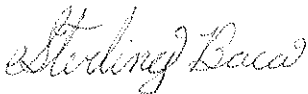

As I begin a new semester at JKO I would like to take this opportunity to update you on what I have done this last semester. I had twenty-six hours a week of dance classes and training. I continued to earn my high school diploma in my home school program. I have been performing at the highest levels on all my standardized testing.

I was lucky enough to have many performance opportunities. I did two shows in October demonstrating Bournonville technique at the Guggenheim Museum. In November the advanced level at JKO did a special demonstration for Caroline Kennedy and the Northern Trust, who are patrons of JKO. It was an honor to perform for and then meet such a wonderful woman. As you know, I performed in Los Angeles at the Dizzy Feet Celebration of Dance benefit. It was one of the best experiences of my life getting to be around all those great dancers from other disciplines. I also did six performances as the Nutcracker Prince at the historic Westport Country Playhouse in Connecticut. It was an awe inspiring experience.

I had a great semester and I expect to have another. We are preparing for our spring show at JKO and I have been asked to appear in a production of "Sleeping Beauty" at the Westport Playhouse.

I thank you for giving me the support I need to be able to experience the joy of such a wonderful art form. Being in New York is making me the best dancer I can be and the best person I can be.

Sincerely,
